Water Is Never Dry On Twitter/OCWDWaterNews

FOUNTAIN VALLEY, Calif. (Oct. 1, 2009) — Join the online conversation where water is never dry. Follow the Orange County Water District (OCWD) on Twitter for the latest news in groundwater, recycled water, New Blue Water, imported water, water quality and water education in Orange County, the state and around the world!

Tweeters can follow OCWD at <http://twitter.com/OCWDWaterNews> for the latest in District news, as well as news and updates about California's water crisis; water politics; water recycling; the Groundwater Replenishment System, the world's largest water purification project of its kind; conservation tips; media reports; the O.C. Water Summit; Children's Water Education Festival; O.C. Water Hero Program; and the latest in water engineering and technology.

OCWD manages the vast groundwater basin underneath northern and central Orange County that provides most of the water for more than 2.3 million residents. Established by the California State Legislature in 1933, OCWD is a special district governed by a 10-member Board of Directors. OCWD supplies groundwater to residents in the cities of Anaheim, Buena Park, Costa Mesa, Cypress, Fountain Valley, Fullerton, Garden Grove, Huntington Beach, Irvine, La Palma, Los Alamitos, Newport Beach, Orange, Placentia, Santa Ana, Seal Beach, Stanton, Tustin, Villa Park, Westminster and Yorba Linda.
