FULLERTON APPOINTS COUNCIL MEMBER FLORY TO THE ORANGE COUNTY WATER DISTRICT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FOUNTAIN VALLEY, Calif. (Jan. 28, 2014) — The Orange County Water District (OCWD) announced that Council Member Jan M. Flory was appointed to its Board of Directors by the Fullerton City Council (the Council) to represent the city of Fullerton (Division 10) effective January 22, 2014. Flory replaces Bruce Whitaker who recently served sixteen months on OCWD's Board. Not a newcomer to OCWD, Flory previously served on the Board from 1999 through 2002.

"I am honored to represent the residents of Fullerton," said Flory. "I look forward to serving on the Board again and being a part of this internationally acclaimed organization that has maintained its legacy as a leader in groundwater management and water reuse."

Flory is a longtime public servant and resident of Fullerton. In November 2012, she was re-elected to the Council. She previously served on it from October 1994 through December 2002. She was the Mayor of Fullerton in 1998-99, and Mayor Pro Tem in 1997-98 and 2001-02. She has also served on the city's Planning and Community Services Commissions and was a former appointee to the Santa Ana River Flood Protection Agency and the Sister City Association.

Flory is a family law attorney and has maintained her law office in Fullerton since 1986. Currently, she is a member of the Orange County and North Orange County Bar associations, as well as the Family Law Section of the Orange County Bar. Prior to becoming a lawyer, Flory was a licensed real estate broker for 15 years. For Director Flory's complete bio, please visit OCWD's website at
