Subject: Working Together to Seek Mutually Acceptable Solutions

Mike:

Irvine Ranch Water District (IRWD) received the July 5, 2016 letter from the Orange County Water District (OCWD) Board President Cathy Green, and appreciates the decision by the OCWD Board of Directors to reconsider the revised Tolling Agreement at tonight's scheduled OCWD Board Meeting. The purpose of this letter is to:

1. Reiterate IRWD's objective associated with executing a tolling agreement with OCWD;
2. To review the history of the development of the Tolling Agreement and opportunities for the OCWD Board to consider the agreement; and
3. To express our desire that tonight the OCWD Board will approve entering into the Tolling Agreement with IRWD.

Objective of the Tolling Agreement:

The objective of the Tolling Agreement is to establish a collaborative framework through which OCWD and IRWD can evaluate and seek solutions to the issues raised by IRWD that are associated with OCWD's exclusion of recycled water as a supplemental source when establishing IRWD's annual Basin Production Percentage (BPP) and related Basin Equity Assessment charges. Such an approach would give our agencies time to present and evaluate our respective positions on the issues and to seek solutions outside of an expensive and lengthy litigation process. It would also provide the opportunity to engage the Groundwater Producers in open discussions related to the resolution of the issues.

History of Tolling Agreement:

Though this issue has been known by both agencies for many years, IRWD's letter of protest dated April 20, 2016 was intended to engage OCWD in a process to seek resolutions to the issues, while still protecting the rights of IRWD's customers. The approach we suggested initially was to do this without litigation and under the mutually beneficial protections of a Tolling Agreement. IRWD's efforts associated with the execution of a Tolling Agreement, along with other key decision points, are summarized in a timeline attached as Exhibit "A".

Please note that the assertion made by certain groundwater producer agencies that a tolling agreement would preclude open discussions with any interested producer agencies is false, and the confusion and delay created by these statements essentially forced IRWD to file its claim against OCWD to protect the rights of the IRWD customers.

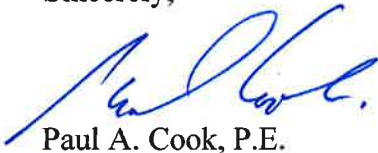

Request for OCWD Action:

As described in IRWD's previous letters, OCWD and IRWD have a long history of working together, openly and cooperatively, to resolve complex issues. Even though IRWD has filed and served a petition and complaint against OCWD, there is still an opportunity for our respective agencies to execute the Tolling Agreement. The revised Tolling Agreement, approved by the IRWD Board on June 27, 2016 and sent to OCWD on June 29, 2016, was updated to reflect the changed condition of the complaint having been served.

Should the OCWD Board again reject the opportunity to work together under the allowed protection of the Tolling Agreement, IRWD remains open to a constructive settlement dialogue. Such litigation settlement dialogue may not offer the opportunity to engage the Groundwater Producers in open discussions. For this reason, we believe that the execution of the Tolling Agreement is the preferred approach.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (949)-453-5590.

Sincerely,

Paul A. Cook, P.E.
General Manager
